

Clyde Fredericks, Best International Entry, from Cape Peninsula University explain how a remote GSM monitoring PV ground water pumping systems works to Kevit Desai, Chair-IEEE Kenya

Steve Smith, Chairman Kenya Association of Manufacturers (KAM) during the exhibition.

Michael Joseph, CEO Safaricom (centre) follows keenly as Stephen Njoroge from Nairobi University explain how GPS co-ordinates via GSM.

Susan Kabira, Best Woman Engineer explain her Remote 3D Reconstruction systems to the Permanent Secretary-Ministry of ICT ,Mr Bitange Demo

Susan Kabira, Best Woman Engineer receive a laptop donated by Safaricom Limited. Looking on is Safaricom CEO, Michael Joseph and Chairman-IEEE Kenya, Kevit Desai

ENGINEERING STUDENTS' EXHIBITION

theme:
ICT in rural development

10th
ANNIVERSARY

VENUE: SARIT CENTER EXPO HALL
DATE: 14TH AND 15TH SEPTEMBER 2007
TIME: 9AM - 6 PM

EVENT ORGANISER:

Centurion Systems Limited
2nd FLOOR, NEW REHEMA HOUSE
RAPHTA ROAD, WESTLANDS
www.centurionsystemsLtd.com
email: exhibition@centurionsystemsLtd.com
Telephone: (020)4440102/3

