

---

IEEE Ghana Section Report October 2012

---

1. Highlights from the past:

- 1st September 2012, 10am – 1pm: The IEEE SB at Kwame Nkrumah University of Science & Technology (KNUST) organized a Robotics Seminar at
- 1st September 2012: The IEEE SB at All Nations University College (ANUC) in Koforidua organized a workshop on The Application of Electronic Component on Devices. In attendance was IEEE Ghana Chair (Prof Gyasi) and ANUC SB Counsellor (Dr John)
- 21-22 Aug 2012: On behalf of the IEEE Ghana, the Section Chair (Prof Gyasi) hosted a team from NABE USA for EPICS projects in two rural communities in Ghana
- 17th March, 2012: The IEEE SB at All Nations University College (ANUC) in Koforidua organized hardware workshop on the theme „HOW TO BUILD YOUR OWN COMPUTER.“
- 10th Feb 2012: IEEE SB at All Nations University College (ANUC) elected new SB executives

2. Future activities

- 28th Sept 2012: Launch of Joint IEEE Communications/Computer Chapter at Ericsson Ghana headquarters
- 25-27 Oct 2012: 4th IEEE ICAST conference at KNUST Campus, Kumasi. Several state ministers are attending
- Oct 2012: Elections of executive members of the IEEE Ghana Section
- Milestone ceremonies

3. Miscellaneous

- The IEEE Ghana Chair has successfully negotiated with Ericsson Ghana to partner with the IEEE on activities and membership drive. The Chair gave a seminar at Ericsson HQ recently, and has also met with Ericsson Ghana executives on 3 occasions