

IEEE Lebanon Section Report April 20131. Highlights from the past

- Lebanon Section established in 2006
- From that date, Section has been very active, several conferences have been conducted in Lebanon between the different chapters and different universities
- Presence in several IEEE activities and conferences.
- General Assembly every year has been a milestone for the section where awards by the section are awarded to the Best Active chapter and the Best active student branch.

2. Future activities

- MESBC Awarded to the AUB (American University of Beirut) student chapter in 2013 and will be hosted in the university itself.
- Melecon 2014 to be hosted in Lebanon by the section.

3. Best practices

- Communications between the executive committee and the members.
- Inviting all chapter chairs to ExCom meetings to share opinions.
- Sending emails for conferences
- Encouraging new members by explaining the benefits of joining IEEE

4. Points of concern / Topics for future discussion

- Meleco 2014 and the involvement of IEEE in that

5. Miscellaneous

- Awards and other signs of recognition- TAs mentioned above