

1. What kind of technical activities can members participate in?

2. Why do we have such technical activities besides the IEEE technical society's activities?

3. How are the Distinguished Lecturer programs being unified and presented collectively?