

IEEE Volunteering Platform

Presentation by Rawan El Jamal

Fifteen minutes, three objectives for today

1

What is the IEEE Volunteering Platform?

2

How can you use it as a volunteer?

3

How can you use it to find volunteers?

1 What is the IEEE Volunteering Platform?

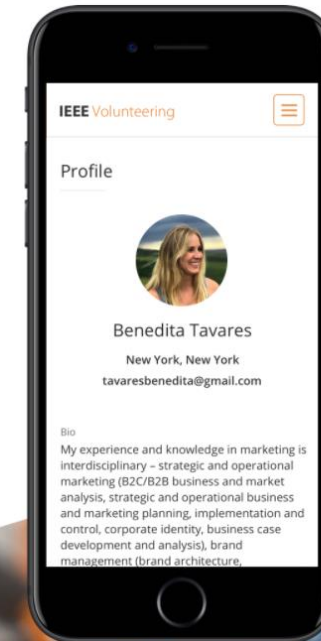

- Started by IEEE YP
- Volunteer for small things with big impact
- Do it on your own time (short vs long term)
- Do it your own way (remote vs local)
- Share different skills your have, not always technical
- Find different skillsets that others have to offer

IEEE Volunteering, on your OWN terms

2 How can you use the platform to volunteer?

- Open the platform and sign up
- Create your profile with top 3 skills
- Browse volunteering opportunities
- Apply and VOLUNTEER!

3 How can you use the platform to find volunteers?

- Open the platform and sign up
- Go to the “find volunteers” page
- Fill details about volunteering opportunities
- Publish and connect with volunteers!

IEEE VOLUNTEERING ON MY TERMS

Volunteering for small things, with a big impact.

Volunteering offers flexibility to volunteering within IEEE.

Through this platform, IEEE members will be able to advertise and search for volunteering opportunities, be it short- or long-term, local or remote, or requiring different skills.

IEEE Volunteering Platform Ambassadors 2022

*This opportunity is preparation for 2022 ambassadors. If you are interested in being an ambassador this year, where we will need more support, please apply for that opportunity. We are looking for Ambassadors to help promote IEEE Volunteering platform, post opportunities and encourage other volunteer leaders to post opportunities. Ambassadors are preferred to be volunteer leaders that can also post opportunities themselves and/or connected to other volunteer leaders that can post and promote the platform organically. Join us to for enabling the next generation of volunteering experience.
