

Technology Influencers, Pioneers, and Valuable Partners

Sharing over one million years of experience with the next generation of innovators

Leading the way and giving back. IEEE Life Membership is an official recognition of a strong and sustained commitment to IEEE. Life Members get together with their peers, participate in educational excursions, work together to mentor students, and improve our communities.

The IEEE Life Members Fund (LMF) of the IEEE Foundation is dedicated to supporting IEEE activities of interest to Life Members and engineering students.
