Biography

Gustavo Giannattasio, MBA, PMP, is a Life Senior Member of IEEE, Chair of Mentoring committee at IEEE Life Members, an internationally recognized technology management referent and Smart Cities expert from. He has more than three decades of experience leading telecommunications, information technology, and digital transformation initiatives across industry, academia, and international organizations. He currently serves as IEEE Technology and Engineering Management Society (TEMS) Vice President for Education, promoting global professional development programs, webinars, online courses, and student competitions. He is an active contributor to the IEEE Smart Cities Initiative, where he has led education, standards, and international outreach activities. Gustavo has served as IEEE Region 9 Director (Latin America and the Caribbean) and has held numerous leadership positions within IEEE Communications Society, Computer Society, SSIT and TEMS He has also participated as an invited expert in ITU Smart Sustainable Cities initiatives and has contributed to IEEE standards related to IoT and Smart Cities. A certified Project Management Professional (PMP), he combines engineering expertise with business leadership through his MBA background. Throughout his career he has been a university professor, keynote speaker, mentor, and consultant in emerging technologies including Artificial Intelligence, IoT, 5G, Industry 4.0, Digital Twins, and technology management. He is passionate about empowering engineers, students, and technology leaders through education, innovation, and international collaboration. His work focuses on bridging technology, engineering, empowering young professionals as future leaders to create sustainable, people-centered digital solutions for society.

Ing Gustavo Giannattasio MBA, PMP, HKN, LSM
IEEE SSIT Distinguished Lecturer
IEEE TEMS Board, Education VP
IEEE Smart Cities Board, Education Vice-Chair, SC Awards Contest Chair
IEEE LMAG R9 Chair, LMC Mentoring Committee Chair
AI Coalition, Metaverse, TCOES, PAR 7999, PAR 7100, PAR 2784 Committees